Objections to assessment scores

ARTICLE 27 – (1) The student who is screened, not for the midterm exams, is officially drawn to the department or program head of the relevant academic unit affiliated with the school, on the working day after the announcement of the grades (changed expression: RG-1/3/2020-31055). The education of the student is taught materially, examined and announced to the student by the instructor. In the part of this evaluation, the department or program will be re-evaluated, one of which is a school, and a three-person commission will be re-evaluated for being involved in a material error. The result is reported to the department or program head as written. The department or program head notifies the planner as the author. (2) Semester/make-up final, make-up, make-up/make-up and additional exams are not comprehensive enough for their success, the student, the academic institution related to the education unit, after the grades (Amended phrase:RG-1/3/2020) -31055 within three working days, he is elected as a writer. The education of the student is taught materially, examined and announced to the student by the instructor. In the part of this evaluation that will be made again, the department or program chair, one of them being in a position to consist of the curriculum, a commission of three to be formed is reviewed again to determine whether it is a material part or not. The result is reported to the department or program head as written. It notifies the director of the department or program or its own dean in a planned manner. The Dean's Office/Directorate announces the end of student affairs and if there is a problem in the success grade, the Registrar's Office is also notified.
