

Workshop Programme
on
“Feminist Epistemic Justice in the EU and Beyond”
6 April 2023-hosted by Europe and World Center
University of Liverpool, Arthur West 8-11 Abercromby Square

11.00-11.15. Welcome by Özge Zihnioğlu, University of Liverpool

11.15-12.00. Discussion on the epistemic injustice and decolonial framework, Rahime Süleymanoğlu-Kürüm, Bahçeşehir University

Feedback from participants

12.00-13.00 Lunch

13.00-13.30: Amal Abu-Bakare, University of Liverpool (Presentation of the paper and discussion)

13.30-14.00: Özge Zihnioğlu, University of Liverpool (presentation of the abstract, main ideas and discussion)

14.00-14.15. Coffee Break

14.15-14.45. Rosalind Cavagan (presentation of the abstract, main ideas and discussion)

14.45-15.15. Melis Cin, University of Lancaster (presentation of the abstract, main ideas and discussion)

15.15-15.45. Miriam Mona Mukalazi (presentation of the abstract, main ideas and discussion)

15.45-16.00. Wrap-up and discussion on the potential journal

This workshop is organized as part of the Jean Monnet Chair on “Feminist Epistemic Justice in the EU and Beyond” (FEJUST), funded by the European Commission and hosted by the Europe and the World Center, at the University of Liverpool on 6 April 2023 in a hybrid format, and details for online participation are below.

Online participation information:

Topic: Europe and the World Centre FEJUST Workshop

Time: Apr 6, 2023 11:00 AM London

Join Zoom Meeting

<https://liverpool-ac-uk.zoom.us/j/98533482069?pwd=NkJK2JKS1lQdVh0OGpTc3JSTTA1QT09>

Meeting ID: 985 3348 2069

Passcode: @2!du5&p