

Reimagining EU Politics: Embracing Feminist Epistemic Justice and Decolonial Perspectives

7 June 2024

Microsoft Teams

Meeting ID: 311 282 276 616

Passcode: cdUpiQ

9.30-11.00: Panel 1: Epistemic Injustice and EU Policy-Making Inside Out

Chair: Rahime Süleymanoğlu-Kürüm, BAU Jean Monnet Chair

Discussant: Selin Türkeş Kılıç, Yeditepe University

Constructing Feminist Epistemic Justice by Deconstructing Eurocentrism in the EU's Gender Equality Regime and Europeanisation Mechanisms

Rahime Süleymanoğlu-Kürüm, BAU

Melis Cin, Lancaster University

Dimitrios Anagnostakis, University of Aberdeen

Understanding Feminist Standpoint in the EU's Gender Equality Framing: A Comparison between Institutions

Atakan Yılmaz, Bahçeşehir University

Anne-Marie McCallion, Manchester Metropolitan University

The EU's Legitimation Practices as a Gender Champion: An analysis of colonial continuities within the third Gender Action Plan

Miriam Mona Mukalazi, PhD Researcher, Heinrich-Heine-University Düsseldorf

11.00-11.15: Break

11.15-12.45. Panel 2: Gender-Sensitive Issues and Policymaking

Chair: Selcen Öner, BAU

Discussant: Melis Cin, Lancaster University

Toward an EcoFeminist Political Economy Analysis of The EU's Green Deal

Rosalind Cavaghan, Independent Scholar/Visiting Researcher Edinburgh

Providing security vs. caring for nature? Gendered policymaking on European agriculture and conflict over the nature restoration law

Markus Holdo, Lund University

Policy vs. reality: a feminist and decolonial appraisal of the EU legislation for corporate accountability

Deniz Kellecioglu, University of Gothenburg

12.45-13.45: Lunch Break

13.45-15.30 Panel 3: Epistemic Injustice Beyond the EU

Chair: Markus Holdo

Discussant: Miriam Mona Mukalazi

Ecofeminist Struggle for Epistemic Recognition Beyond the EU? The Case of Akbelen Forest in Turkey

Digdem Soyaltin-Colella, University of Aberdeen

Defne Gonenç, Independent scholar

EU's Support in Gender Activism in Tanzania: Assessment of Epistemic Injustice in Policy and Practices

Akande Kwayu, Bumaco Ltd.

EU Policies and Racialized Women in European Universities

Bruna Cristina Jaquette Pereira, Universidad Complutense de Madrid

Approaching the Migration-Gender-(In)Security Nexus from the Liminal Spaces of the EU: The Persistent Epistemic Marginalization of Migrant Women in Switzerland

Victor Santos Rodriguez, The Geneva Graduate Institute (IHEID) & University of Lausanne (UNIL)